

Council Land Terms & Conditions of Hire

1. Ilmington Parish Council (“the Council”) will not be responsible for any loss, damage or injury of any description to persons or property which may be sustained subsequent upon or arising directly or indirectly from the holding of the said event and the organisers shall indemnify the council against all such claims.
2. The organisers will have minimum public liability insurance cover of £2 million for each and every incident against all liability arising, covering both the participants in the event (including any officials employed in connection therewith) and all third parties. A copy will need to be submitted for approval. If the event is of higher risk, then the council will be able to request a higher-level cover where appropriate. The organisers will comply with any conditions which may be required by the insurers in respect of this event.
3. The organisers are responsible for ensuring that overall safety at the event is maintained so that as far as reasonably practicable, people setting up, breaking down and attending the event are not exposed to risks to their health and safety. The organiser will submit a suitable risk assessment to the Council on request and without unreasonable delay. Further safety certificates, such as ADIPS for fairground rides, may be required where necessary.
4. The organisers will have plans and procedures in place to deal with the following:
 - Event communications
 - Crowd management
 - Fire
 - Lost children and vulnerable adults
 - Toilet and drinking water provision
 - Waste management & recycling
 - Disability compliance
 - Security and stewarding
 - Emergencies
 - First aid
 - Transport (including parking)
 - Food safety
 - Environmental impact
 - Equal opportunities
5. If suitable and/or adequate public toilets are not available, provision must be made by the organiser to the satisfaction of the council.
6. The site or area being used will be left in a clean and tidy condition to the satisfaction of the council. The organisers are to be responsible for the full costs of the repair of any damage to the site which occurs as a result of the holding of this event – such repairs are to be carried out by the council at the organiser’s expense or by an approved contractor as agreed by the council. Depending on the size and nature of the event, a returnable deposit against reinstatement of the ground may be required
7. The organisers will comply with the requirements or regulations of any national governing body or institution which lays down regulations so far as the proposed event is concerned.
8. Car parking on any green field site is not permitted unless prior arrangement and permission is obtained from the council.
9. Overnight parking of campervans and motorhomes and camping on green field sites is not permitted unless prior arrangement and permission is obtained from the council.
10. The council reserve the right to revoke this consent on giving written notice to the organisers if, in the opinion of the council’s events team, it is impossible, impracticable or inadvisable to allow the event to take place by reason of the nature of the event, the condition of the open space or of any buildings, equipment, fixtures or fittings therein or the carrying out of works of maintenance or repair thereto, Coronavirus (COVID-19) government guidelines or any other circumstances outside the council's control, and on the consent being revoked as aforesaid the organisers shall be repaid any deposit or sum of money that may have been paid but shall have no claim against the council for any damage or loss they may sustain or in respect of any liability which they may incur or have incurred in consequence of any such revocation.
